To : EPSO Permits, Registrations and Licenses (PRL) working group participants and other possibly interested EPSO contacts.

From: EPSO Joint Office

Dear EPSO PRL working group participants,

Our next meeting will take place in Malmö, Sweden at 23rd September 2019: 11:15 -13:15 at the Clarion Hotel Malmö Live Congress Centre, address: Dag Hammarskjölds Torg2, Malmö.

In Porto, the first introductory meeting on the exploratory working group were initiated. The aim of the working group is to exchange best practices on the topic of supervisory procedures on permits, registrations and licenses and other issued allowances necessary for health and social care providers to be able to operate.

There were more than sufficient interest to go on with the working group.
Please find the short overview of the meeting enclosed.

Maria Filina-Kossatsova from Estonia has agreed to take a lead and chair the meeting in Malmö.

Please find below the planned agenda:

Maria will give a presentation about Estonian supervisory system and Permits, Licenses and Registration system.

Please be prepared to introduce briefly your countries system, so we can discuss what kind of allowance/registration system exist and how is the supervision arranged.

Suggested discussion topics:

Permits and licenses equal quality?

Main requirements for permit and licences in health care in different states?

Permits and licences how supervision is organized?

All comments and ideas are welcome. Please forward them to at Maria Filina-Kossatšova at Maria.Filina-Kossatsova@terviseamet.ee and copy mmurel@epsonet.eu with suggestions.
