Hotel and Booking information for the 39th EPSO Conference in Dublin

Conference Hotels 24th & 25th September 2025

Due to the change in the conference venue, we are considering other hotels than those previously listed. We haven't booked a conference hotel in advance due to high demand and high prices. Therefore, we recommend choosing one of the following hotels, depending on availability and preferences (as consulted on trip.com).

4-star: Premier Suites Dublin Ballsbridge*, 280-meter walk to the RDS, €180; breakfast not included.

4-star: Butlers Townhouse*, 1 km from the RDS, €141; breakfast not included.

4-star: Clayton Hotel Ballbridge*, 340-meter walk - breakfast included, €220.

4-star: Herbert Park Hotel*, 600-meter walk - breakfast included, €221.

4-star: Leonardo Hotel Dublin Parnell Street, 5 km from the RDS, €182, breakfast included.

3-star: Morehampton Townhouse, 810 meters from the RDS, breakfast included, €165. 3-star: The Lansdowne Hotel  1.3 km walk from the RDS – €209 including breakfast

3-star: Donny Brook Hall  1.2 km walk to the RDS €111 – breakfast not included

3-star: Easy The Hotel Dublin  5.4 km from the RDS – approximately €138 – breakfast not included

Distances are approximate, and prices may vary depending on the booking site used.

We recommend checking your hotel reservation as soon as possible. Dublin seems to be very busy (for American football) during the week of our conference 😊

Furthermore, since our conference venue unfortunately had to be changed, it might be wise to cancel your booking if possible and change to a hotel closer to the Royal Dublin Society.

However, if that's not a reasonable option, you can keep your hotel reservation and travel to the RDS by public transport or taxi. Dublin has reasonably good public transport and taxis Bolt – Uber – Now free – taxi apps are available in Dublin.
